Response to Amendment

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "insulating spacer removably placed between the insulating block and a second adjacent insulating block" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 3742

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nandu in view of Lecouras et al.(U.S.Pat.5,900,177). ). Nambu discloses an ultrahigh temperature heat treatment apparatus that shows many of the features of the claimed invention but fails to explicitly show a semiconductor fabrication method. Lecouras discloses a furnace sidewall temperature control system that shows using a furnace to fabricate semiconductors. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the claimed invention to use a furnace to fabricate a semiconductor since the temperature can be controlled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nanbu in view of Lecouras and further in view of Berg(U.S.Pat.5,313,048). Nanbu in view of Lecouras discloses an ultrahigh temperature heat treatment apparatus that shows many of the features of the claimed invention but fails to explicitly show a silica and aluminum block. Berg discloses a high temperature research furnace with a v-shaped guide member that shows a silica and aluminum block. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the claimed invention to use a silica and aluminum block as taught by Berg in the device of Nandu in view of Lecouras to create a refractory block.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 14, 16, and 18 allowed.

Allowable subject matter was indicated, regarding Claim 10 which depended from Claim 6 which depends from Claim 1. The subject matter of Claim 6 was not incorporated into amended Claim 1.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. HirasawaUS 5,001,327 and Futamura US 6,372,048 are cited to show structure similar to the claimed invention.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
